Books and Videos

Our books and videos are created by CareerCup's founder, who has worked for Google, Microsoft, and Apple. They'll give you the help you need to ace the interview.

Real Interviews

All our interview questions are added by real candidates, so you can be sure you're looking at the real questions that companies are likely to ask.

Mock Interviews

CareerCup also offers mock interviews, resume review, and (upon request) career coaching. All of these are done by actual engineering interviewers for the top companies.

6. TECHIE DELIGHT

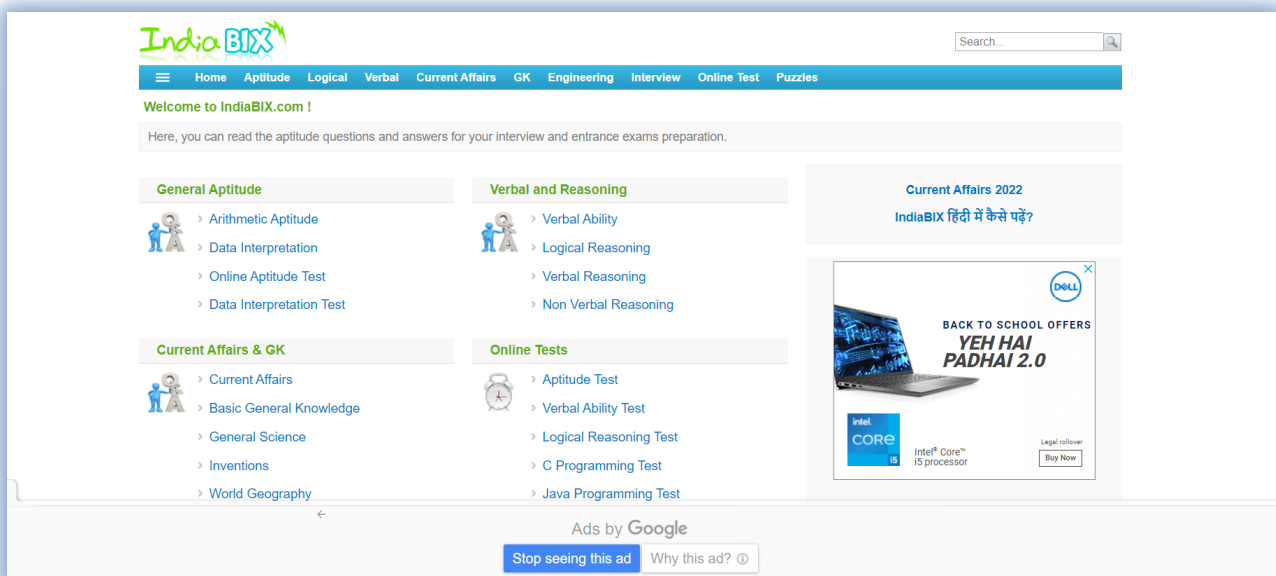

The screenshot shows the TECHIE DELIGHT website interface. The header includes the site name, navigation links for 'FAANG Interview Prep', 'Practice HOT', and 'Data Structures and Algorithms', along with a search icon. The main content area lists several technical problems with their difficulty levels and topics:

- Check children-sum property in a binary tree (Easy, Binary Tree, Tree): Given the root of a binary tree, determine if the binary tree holds children-sum property. For a tree to satisfy the children-sum property, each node's value should be equal to the sum of values at its left and right subtree.
- Shrink an array by removing triplets that satisfy given constraints (Hard, Array, Dynamic Programming): Given an integer array, shrink it by removing adjacent triplets that satisfy the given constraints and return the total number of elements in the resultant array.
- Count nodes in a BST that lies within a given range (Easy, BST): Given a BST, count the total number of nodes that lie within a given range.
- Check whether a directed graph is Eulerian

On the right side, there are two identical promotional banners for LinkedIn Marketing Solutions with the text: 'Not just any leads. They're quality leads for your business.' and a 'Learn more' button.
